ALEX M. SONSON,

called on behalf of Registrant John "Giovanni" Aragona, was first duly sworn to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MS. PITTS:

1.3

- Q. Good morning, Mr. Sonson.
- A. Good morning.
- Q. As you know, we are here for the testimony deposition before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board for the deposition proceeding between Luckyu Enterprises, Incorporated, doing business as Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck, and John Giovanni Aragona regarding the registration of four trademarks.

I am going to ask you a series of questions regarding this matter. Please listen to my questions carefully. If you do not understand the questions, please let me know, and I will be happy to rephrase it. The court reporter is here to take down everything that you say, but she can only transcribe what she verbally -- I am sure you understand all of this. Should I continue?

- A. You can skip the ground rules. I think that I have heard it often enough.
  - Q. Okay, thank you.

Ralph Rosenberg Court Reporters, Inc.

American Savings Bank Tower, Suite 2460

A. I will abide by them.

1.3

Q. Okay, all right. So I would like to start out with your knowledge, your personal knowledge about the Giovanni's Shrimp Truck business, both before when it was owned by the Aragonas and when it was -- and after it was transferred to Troy Nitsche.

When was the first time that you had ever heard of Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck?

- A. My best recollection is sometime after 1994, between that and 1997 when I drafted a document for Mr. Aragona.
- Q. Okay, and the Giovanni and the name of the business, who do you know that to refer to?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

- A. Giovanni is actually Italian or Sicilian for John, and John is John Aragona. He consulted with me regarding a matter that pertains to his restaurant at the North Shore at Haleiwa, and that's how I got to know him. I visited him at his restaurant, and I ate there with my family, and I can tell you that I kinda like the guy.
  - Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, and did you like the food?
- A. At the Italian restaurant, I think my family really loved it, but if you are referring to Giovanni's shrimp, that's the best.

1 | Q. Okay.

1.3

- A. It was the best when it was prepared by Connie Aragona. When she prepared it, I really have a recollection that it was really, really good at that time.
  - Q. Okay, and how did your relationship with Mr. Aragona proceed until you representing him?
  - A. Well, we were -- we didn't treat each other like an attorney and client at that time. This is prior to him asking me to draft documents for the sale of his business. While he was still -- while I was still dealing with him regarding that restaurant at Haleiwa, it was more like, you know, help me out with this, you know, he'd say, I have this problem, and I would -- I would give him responses, you know, I would answer, and I would give him some advice regarding what to do, and this has nothing to do with the shrimp truck, of course. This was just regarding the other restaurant. And I got to know him then really well, and then soon after that, I mean, well, not soon. Sometime after that, he came to me with the idea of selling his shrimp truck.
- Q. Okay, and were there any other details that he gave you at that time regarding other business ventures?
  - A. Well, I know --
- MS. FRASER: Objection, foundation, and,

Counselor, I am going to ask because -- and I would like it clarified now because I expect I might have questions on this. Is Mr. Aragona and Connie Aragona, have they waived the attorney client privilege in connection with this case if you are going to be questioning Mr. Sonson about --

MS. PITTS: Yes, they have.

MS. FRASER: Both?

1.3

MS. PITTS: Well, Mr. Aragona has, and he was the one that dealt with Mr. Sonson.

MS. FRASER: Okay, and we can explore that, but Connie Aragona is also a party to the agreement.

MS. PITTS: Right.

MS. FRASER: Doesn't she -- has she waived the attorney client privilege?

MS. PITTS: Not that I am aware of. I will follow up on that, but I don't -- most of these questions, I will follow up on that.

- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) I will try to keep it just with what, if you can also, Mr. Sonson, keep it with just the things that happened between you and John.
- A. All right, just for clarification, my understanding is that I was representing Mr. Aragona. I never represented Connie. Connie was somewhat just doing what John said.

- Q. Thank you for clarifying that.
- A. And that's all that is.

1.3

Q. Right, that's what I thought, but I think that opposing counsel needed to hear that.

MS. FRASER: And I can explore that later, but I just wanted to confirm so that I understand what is the subject of permissible questioning, and I can frame my questions appropriately.

MS. PITTS: Okay, all right, so we are moving. Let's see, what was the last question I had asked?

(The pending question was read back by the court reporter as follows:

Question: Okay, and were there any other details that he gave you at that time regarding other business ventures?)

MS. FRASER: Objection, form, calls for impermissible narrative.

A. If you are asking as far as the time frame goes while we were discussing the sale of the shrimp trucks, yes, I am well aware of what John's plans were, and I am also privy to, I guess, a lot of his plans and how they're going about it and what he is going to do with the money, the proceeds of his sale, his business plan, pretty much, he discussed all of that with me, and I gave input, my input into his -- his business plan. Did we lose you? We lost her. 2 3 (Discussion off the record.) (The pending answer was read back by the 4 5 court reporter as follows: Answer: If you are asking as far as the time 6 7 frame goes while we were discussing the sale of the shrimp trucks, yes, I am well aware of what 8 9 John's plans were, and I am also privy to, I 10 guess, a lot of his plans and how they're going 11 about it and what he is going to do with the 12 money, the proceeds of his sale, his business 1.3 plan, pretty much, he discussed all of that with me, and I gave input, my input into his -- his 14 15 business plan.) MS. FRASER: Now that we are on the record, 16 17 in case you didn't hear it, I objected to the form of 18 the question and also as asking for impermissible 19 narrative. 20 I would ask my co-counsel just to help 21 coordinate the logistics here if you want to shoot me an 22 e-mail, Dan, if we get disconnected so we can make a 23 note of that immediately. 24 MR. MULLARKEY: Sure. 25 (By Ms. Pitts) All right, so in drafting the Q.

asset purchase agreement, that was in time what came next?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

Q. (By Ms. Pitts) What came next in time? Let me rephrase.

MS. FRASER: Same objection.

- A. The -- I did have discussions with Mr. Aragona on the terms of the sale, and I do recall we probably did several drafts. I have a recollection that I sent -- that I even sent the draft to a friend of mine who is better at, you know, drafting contracts than I am, and he did help me with some of the provisions and how to frame it so that we can make sure that -- all I know is that I wanted to make sure that what Dan wanted was there on the contract.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, and what was this friend's name?
  - A. My friend?

20

24

- Q. Yes, that helped you out?
  - A. His name is Randall Rosenberg.
- Q. Can you repeat that, please?
- A. Randall Rosenberg, RANDALL, ROSEN, berg, BERG.
  - Q. Okay, and you said that you wanted to make sure that the terms that John wanted were being put into the contract correctly?

A. Yes.

1.3

- Q. Did you --
  - A. I wanted that.
- Q. Okay.
- A. I wanted to make sure.
  - Q. Okay, and what specifically were those terms?

    MS. FRASER: Objection, form.
- A. Well, the most important thing, I believe, that John was concerned about was he had big plans of bottling the sauce, okay? So he already had, I guess, a manufacturer in California that was going to bottle sauce for him, and he wanted to make sure that he was able to sell his sauce and at the same time be able to provide Troy the sauce to conduct his shrimp business.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, can you remember anything else that Mr. Aragona was concerned about?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

A. The -- the other thing that I recall is that Mr. Aragona actually wanted to make sure that he was able to conduct business in Hawaii also, and the business that he wanted to do was to sell his sauce, so that's the other thing, and there was a request from him to make sure that he has the rights to his sauce, his business, rather, outside of the State of Hawaii.

1 | Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay.

- A. So my job, I guess, was to limit the assets that are being sold to Mr. Troy Nitsche.
- Q. Okay, so what were the assets that were being sold, and what was excluded from the assets that were being sold?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

- A. Well, the -- what was being sold was the two trucks, the inventory, and I guess the training was included, and also that there was a source of sauce.
  - Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay.
- A. This was the tricky part because it had something to do with the recipe. I know that the recipe of the sauce was protected. Apparently, no one else had that recipe, and the idea was just to provide the sauce to Mr. Nitsche, and at the same time give Mr. Aragona the right to conduct business in Hawaii besides the sale of the shrimp or any of those shrimp trucks and the business to the restaurant, to that effect, there's some sales limitation to that.
- Q. Okay, and do you want to go ahead and turn to Exhibit 1 or Exhibit 2? Sorry. Exhibit 1 is just your notice.
  - A. I don't have that.

25 | (Discussion off the record.)

(Deposition Exhibit 1 was marked for 1 2 identification.) 3 MS. PITTS: Okay, let's go ahead and introduce Exhibit 1 as the notice and subpoena provided 4 5 to both opposing counsel and Mr. Sonson. MS. FRASER: And, Counselor, I just would 6 7 like to indicate that Exhibit 1 does not have any proof 8 of service, and it does not appear to be signed. 9 that the copy that I should have? 10 MS. PITTS: That is the copy that I noticed 11 you with. I served it to Mr. Sonson electronically. 12 MS. FRASER: Mr. Sonson, have you accepted 1.3 service? 14 THE WITNESS: Yes. 15 (By Ms. Pitts) Actually, before we go to Q. 16 Exhibit 2, a couple of more questions. When you first 17 started with drafting the asset purchase agreement, were 18 you working with Mr. Nitsche as well? MS. FRASER: Objection, form. 19 20 No. I was just working with Mr. Aragona. Α. 21 (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, and do you know if Mr. Q. 22 Nitsche was represented by an attorney? 23 I have a very vague recollection as to whether or not he was represented by an attorney. 24 25 Okay, so did you have any conversations with an 0.

attorney, if you remember any conversations with an attorney that was representing him?

A. No, I don't --

1.3

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

- A. I don't recall any, at this time, I don't have a recollection whether I spoke to an attorney, although I did -- I can -- there's thoughts in my mind that is looking for that information, but at this point in time, I don't quite recall.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, that's understandable. It was a long time ago, 1997. All right, now, can we go to Exhibit 2, please?

(Deposition Exhibit 2 was marked for identification.)

- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) All right, so the first thing I wanted to ask you about, the preamble to this says that the seller desires to sell a portion of the assets of the business. Buyer desires to purchase exclusive rights in the State of Hawaii to use the name Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp for the purpose of selling food. The preamble, can you explain why this was put in there?
- MS. FRASER: Objection, form. Also calls for impermissible narrative.
- A. Well, the purpose of that, of course, is to introduce what was being done, but the key point, I believe, in there is just that I wanted to make sure that it's a portion of the assets were just being sold, or I tried to limit it to make sure that Mr. Aragona would be able to conduct business as he wanted it.

Q. (By Ms. Pitts) All right. Now, if we can go to page two and paragraph one or section number one, it mentions a contingency about the buyer being able to lease property at Haleiwa and Kahuku. Did you do any work at all on that lease transfer?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form, leading.

- A. No, I did not. John was advised that he needed to do this in order for the sale to go through.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, and do you know any other details as to whether or not he was able to do that?

MS. FRASER: Form, leading, narrative.

- A. I can't recall whether he did or not.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay.

- Q. All right. On page, I'm sorry, the pages are not numbered. We are looking at section C, contingencies, and C, paragraph C on the next page.
  - A. Yes, I see paragraph C.
- Q. Okay. The copy that I was provided, we got it from the court records from Connie's case, and I am not sure, I believe that Mr. Nitsche provided the copy. Do from the court records from Connie's case sure, I believe that Mr. Nitsche provided you know why paragraph two C would have been circled there?

1.3

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

- A. No, I don't know why the two C or the markings are there on the page that's circled, I don't have any idea why those are circled.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, all right. Let's see.

  All right, in section five, representation of seller to buyer, and then paragraph A. I'm sorry, excuse me. The next page, paragraph E, this warrants that the seller is the only individual or entity --

Actually, Mr. Sonson, can you read that, that paragraph E?

- A. Seller is the only individual or entity that owns any rights to the Giovanni Scampi and Giovanni's Hot and Spicy Sauces, and the seller has the full right to contract with the buyer as to any agreement regarding restricting the sale and use of said sauces.
- Q. Okay. Can you explain why this was put into the contract?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

A. I guess that is a representation that I thought
I had to put in there because they are -- in case someone questions, you know, it is there in writing that they are the owners, and, second, that they -- the sellers have that right to restrict the sale and use of the sauces.

- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) So was this paragraph put in at the request of either of the parties, or was it you?

  MS. FRASER: Objection, form, leading.
- A. I don't recall specifically if they requested for this particular paragraph. It is my -- the words are mine, but the idea was -- of what it does was discussed with Mr. Giovanni, and he agreed, I understand -- I believe that he agreed that this is what he wanted.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) All right, so if we can, go to the paragraph ten, two pages over.
  - A. Yes, I am there.

1.3

Q. And then section A, the restrictions, can you state what those restrictions are?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form, leading.

- A. Well, I am reading ten A, and the restriction on the buyer here is that he has to sell, I guess, the plates. The way that Giovanni was selling the shrimp at his trucks was very simple. He explained it to me how effective it was. Two scoops of rice, the shrimp had to be a large size, butterflied, butterflied and deveined, you know, and that it has to have ten to twelve of these on each plate. That's it.
  - Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay.

1 | A. Ten bucks.

Q. Have you visited the shrimp truck and eaten at the shrimp truck since execution of this asset purchase agreement?

MS. FRASER: Objection, leading.

- A. Yes, I have, and a lot of times, I'd bring a lot of people. You know, when I take friends out to the North Shore, we always stop there. And I -- and I'm -- I recall always talking about John to tourists or, you know, friends that I would be eating with.
  - Q. (By Ms. Pitts) And they knew who he was?
- 12 | A. John?
- 13 | Q. Yes.
- 14 | A. No. Only what I tell them.
- 15 | Q. All right.
  - A. But I tell them who Giovanni was, that he was a character, because he was always out, you know, it was in a tent at that time. The shrimp truck was there, it was dirt and a tent. When Mr. Nitsche took over, he —he put a permanent structure there, and it is very different, so it's more organized, a lot more outlets out there now. It's very different in that sense.
  - Q. So to your knowledge, have the restrictions in paragraph A been followed?
  - MS. FRASER: Objection, leading, foundation.

1.3

- A. They -- the plates remain the same, two scoops of rice, and it has ten to twelve shrimps in size. As far as I can tell, as far as the amount, which is the restriction particularly here, it says, on A was followed. As far as the second portion of it, though, I am not sure. I don't know what sauce they're using, but it's a little different. It's not -- maybe because I have eaten there so many times, I can tell that there is a difference.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) What kind of sauces are they selling at this point?
- A. Well, they are selling several sauces, but I always eat, and I always enjoy the scampi and the hot and spicy. The difference in both recipes is that it doesn't taste the same, it just doesn't taste the same. I guess when Connie was doing it, there was just a little something that's missing that I can tell. I don't like it as much, but it is still the best shrimp among all the shrimp trucks that's out on the North Shore right now.
  - Q. So how is the quality of the food they serve?
- A. I like John's and Connie's food, you know, their version of the recipe much better.
  - Q. How do you feel about the quality of Petitioner's food at this point?

1.3

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

- A. It's still better than what's out there because the sauce is still good, although it's not -- it's -- it doesn't make you want to go, ahhh, really, really good, no, you know? It's still the best out there.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, all right. All right, the last sentence of that same paragraph of section ten, paragraph A, it says the joint ownership of the trade name Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp shall apply only to the State of Hawaii, and buyer covenants and agrees not to register said trade name outside of the State of Hawaii.

Can you explain the details behind this?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form, calls for impermissible narrative.

A. Yes, I can. This was my doing. The idea was from John, but I tried to put it on paper. We discussed this as a limitation, and it started out to be a lot more restrictive, actually, than this because I told John that, and he wanted, actually, to do business in the other islands, just in case. But it ended up like, okay, we'll just limit it to Hawaii and just to make sure that he can do whatever he wants with the business outside of Hawaii, and as far as the trade name, John just wanted to make sure and I tried to help out by putting this language that the buyer will not be able to register that outside of Hawaii.

Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay.

1.3

- A. And I do recall, also, that I did not agree with the joint ownership with John, but I believe that that was the agreed upon term with the buyer, with Mr.

  Nitsche, that they wanted the term. That was not my idea. That was John's and Mr. Nitsche's idea.
- Q. Okay, and let's see. If you can turn to section fifteen, the noncompetition clause, was this at the request of the buyer, or was this at the request of -- sorry. Who decided that the noncompetition clause should be included in the agreement?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

- A. I believe it was my idea. John did not know there was such a thing. If I recall, it was my idea to further help him in order for him to conduct business. I had knowledge at that time of their plans, you know, big, big plans, including frozen foods and restaurant type of business, and I believe that that's the reason why I wanted to make sure that they would be able to conduct that according to their plans.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, if you can turn to the exhibit attachments on the exhibit? And this is a breakdown of what was being transferred.

MS. PITTS: Trish, if you could, I want to 1 go ahead and introduce Exhibit 4. 2 3 (Deposition Exhibit 4 was marked for identification.) 4 (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, so did you get to the 5 Q. appendix of the asset purchase agreement? 6 7 Yes, I am familiar with the attachment to 8 Exhibit 2. 9 Okay, so if you look at Exhibit A, the first 10 page, it has the list, a 1952 Chevrolet truck. Can you 11 remember or do you recall what this looked like? 12 MS. FRASER: Objection, form, leading. 1.3 I recall the very colorful truck because not -you know, even before I saw it, I saw pictures of it, 14 15 that's why. John used to show me tourist's, tourist's 16 quide or tourist books, and there were write-ups 17 regarding the white truck, and the picture was there. 18 It was -- I don't know. I didn't like the looks of it, 19 but I quess it's unique. It had a lot of writing on the 20 side. It was white. It has a lot of graffiti or 21 people's signatures, you know, all over the truck. 22 What time frame was that that he showed you the pictures, that John showed you the pictures? 23 24 MS. FRASER: Objection, form. 25

Α.

That was before I even started drafting the asset purchase agreement.

Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, all right, so if you can look at Exhibit 4 and compare the photos of Exhibit 4 with the Exhibit A of the asset purchase agreement?

  - A. Trailer sign. Yes, I see trailer sign.
- Q. Okay, can you look at Exhibit 4, the first photo of Exhibit 4?

2 MS. FRASER: Objection, form.

- A. Which picture? There are three pictures.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, the first picture, the first picture of the sign on the trailer.

MS. FRASER: Same objection.

- A. I see a picture of a sign on what seems like a trailer that has wheels on it. I am familiar with the sign, however, I have no recollection whether that's the original sign, but I know that there was a sign that says, you know, prior to you -- prior, you know, I don't know how many feet or yards away from the right turn, well, to the parking area where the restaurant -- where the truck was really parked. But, yes, you can see that on the side of the road as you head towards Kahuku, I guess. If you follow Kam Highway, it would be on the side of the road prior to hitting the right turn where you park, and then that's where the shrimp truck is located.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, and was this similar to the sign that was included in the asset purchase agreement?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form and leading.

- A. It is similar.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay. Do you recall whether or not it says the same things, has the same markings on it?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form and leading.

- A. The Original White Shrimp Truck is correct.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, what is your recollection of when Giovanni originally started using that sign?

  Was it in connection with this business?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form, narrative.

- A. Time frame would be before he had the idea of selling it because I actually had -- you know, I visited it and ate at his Kahuku shrimp truck site prior to him selling it, and I do recall that there were other trucks already there, and the sign did stick out as the Original White Shrimp Truck.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) All right. Now, if we can please go to Exhibit 3?

(Deposition Exhibit 3 was marked for identification.)

- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) All right, who drafted this agreement?
  - A. I believe my office did it.
- Q. Okay.

- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, and were you able to provide them to him?
- A. No, the records that I had in my office couldn't be found. I usually store them in storage. All closed cases I stored in storage, and I did look, you know, for his file, and I had my staff look for his file, and we couldn't find it.
- Q. What --
  - A. There is --
- Q. Go ahead.
  - A. The computer that we have, however, also has a lot of, I guess, the work that we have compiled, and I believe that the exhibit that I am looking at was found by my staff and was given to John.
  - Q. Okay, what is your firm's document retention policy?
    - A. We just follow what we are supposed to do, which is seven years, you know, we have to keep our documents for seven years.

Q. Okay.

1.3

- A. And after that, we destroy them.
- Q. Okay. What do you recall about this agreement, drafting this agreement, the reason behind drafting it?

  MS. FRASER: Objection, form, calls for narrative.
- A. Well, you know, all I know is that John came to me and says, yeah, I want some changes. I'm not sure if it is his idea of the -- I don't know if it was the attorney of the other side or the buyer's side wanted some changes, and as he told me about the changes that he wanted, I tried to put it on paper, and I believe this was the product of that.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) All right, do you remember anything of paragraph one being --

Can you explain paragraph one, why it changed the original agreement?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form, leading.

- A. He wanted that change because the buyer wanted that to make sure that he is on the lease.
- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay. Do you know if they were able to get the lease transferred as first agreed?

MS. FRASER: Objection, form, leading.

A. After this document was given to John, I have -I have no recollection as to whether or not they had any

- problems after that. John only comes to me when he has a problem -
  Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Yes.

  A. -- so I just -- I assumed that everything was fine.

- Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Okay, all right. All right, let's see.
- A. Oh, I'm sorry. I recall the reason I know everything was fine is because he paid me.
  - Q. Excuse me, what? You recall what?
- A. Because he paid me, so that was clear indication to me that everything was fine. I didn't get paid in advance. I got paid after everything was done.

MS. PITTS: Okay, all right. You know what? I think that's about all that I have for you, actually. Yes, that's it. Jennifer, it's all you.

- Q. Mr. Sonson, what trademark experience do you have?
- A. None. I don't normally do that. I only had, prior to John, I had handled a case for a driver for a handicap transport, in which case, that would be the only one that I litigated. Aside from that and John's, I haven't done any more.
  - Q. Have you ever filed any trademark applications?
- A. Never.
- Q. Have you ever taken any legal courses on trademark law?
  - A. I don't recall. I don't think so.
- Q. For the case that you mentioned you litigated --
- 18 | A. Yes.
  - Q. -- what was the subject matter generally of that case?
- A. That was the use of the word Handi-Van.

  Handi-Van was not registered. However, the City and County contractor, the City and County of Honolulu has a

- 24 contractor, they operate the Handi-Van services. And my
- 25 | client was an operator of vans that would transport people with disabilities, however, these people with disabilities were in a special program that the State operated. It was a Medicaid waiver program, and they were allowed to pick up these individuals from homes all over Honolulu or the State to take them to hospitals, clinics, doctors, take them to outings, et cetera, instead of going with the Handi-Van.

My client used term Handi-Van, and because of -because it sounded like or it looked exactly like the Handi-Van business, they filed a lawsuit, and I did research on it, I defended it, and, basically, I said that it's not filed, it's -- it's not registered, it's not a trademark. However, they countered with -- they argued that it was used and developed in the marketplace because they have used it for years and that it is confusing to people when they make telephone calls and they think it's the Handi-Van. So we settled this case.

- O. When was this case?
- A. I have no recollection right now as to when it was. It was --
  - Q. Was it --

1.3

- A. -- a while back.
- Q. I'm sorry. Was it after you drafted the asset purchase agreement for Mr. Aragona?
  - A. I can't tell you. It could be before or after,

1 | though, but that's the only --

- Q. Was it in the past fifteen years?
- A. Oh, yes.

- Q. So it was after when you drafted the asset purchase agreement in 1997?
  - A. Well, it could be. Like I said, I don't recall.
- Q. How many hours did you spend approximately in connection with that litigation?
- A. I spent a lot of research on it, more than going to court, and I think the solution to that was I coined a different term called Handi-Trans and changed it from Handi-Van to Handi-Trans, and it is being used out there now, but it wasn't trademarked either.
- Q. How many trademark licenses have you been involved in drafting?
- A. None.
- Q. Has Mr. Rosenberg had any trademark experience, to your knowledge?
- 19 A. Not to my knowledge.
  - Q. Do you have a retainer agreement with Mr.
- 21 | Aragona?
- A. No. I treated him as a -- you know, he didn't have any money, and I -- I really was just trying to help me out. In the end, though, he was nice enough to give me money.

  - Q. When was the last time Mr. Aragona contacted you for advice?
    - A. It was after 2010, I believe.
  - Q. In what type of matter did Mr. Aragona contact you after 2010 for advice?
  - A. I don't think it was for advice. He contacted me looking for his documents and asking me to keep looking and requesting copies if I find them.
  - Q. Has Mr. Aragona or anyone on his behalf ever asked you to raise an issue regarding the asset purchase agreement with Troy Nitsche, Luckyu, or Nitsche Enterprises?
  - A. I'm sorry, I don't understand your question regarding raise an issue. What do you mean?
  - Q. Has Mr. Aragona ever indicated there was a problem with Troy Nitsche, Luckyu, or Nitsche Enterprises?
  - A. He indicated that he wanted the documents because he has an ongoing case with Mr. Troy Nitsche, the person that he identified long ago and I recall as

- Q. Did you ever talk to Ms. Pitts, counsel for Mr. Aragona, regarding this lawsuit?
- A. I spoke with Mr. Aragona's counsel because -for the same reason why Mr. Aragona was contacting me, yes.
  - Q. When did you speak with counsel?
- A. I don't recall the exact dates, but the last six months, maybe.
  - Q. Did counsel provide you any copies of the documents we are reviewing today?
    - A. Yes --

      - A. -- I requested copies.
  - Q. When did counsel provide you with copies of the exhibits that we are looking at today?
    - A. Three hours ago.
  - Q. Did counsel indicate what types of questions that she might ask you at your deposition today?
  - A. I actually asked what she wanted from me, and she wanted me to recall what happened or try to recall the events that led to these two documents, the two documents which is identified as Exhibit 2 and Exhibit 3.

- Q. At the time of drafting the asset purchase agreement, did Mr. Aragona have any plans to continue in the shrimp truck business?
- A. Yes, but that's not the only business, actually. He wanted to continue doing business, but not this one. He wanted to do everything except this one, which is Kahuku and Haleiwa shrimp trucks. He wanted to do it somewhere else.
- Q. How do you know Mr. Aragona wanted to continue with the shrimp truck business?
  - A. He told me.
- Q. Did Mr. Aragona want to continue in the shrimp truck business under any of the Giovanni's names?
  - A. Yes.
- Q. Does the asset purchase agreement prohibit Mr. Aragona from running a shrimp truck business under the name Giovanni's in Hawaii?
- A. Not specifically. It was that he was not to -to do business selling in the shrimp truck in the State of Hawaii and using those sauces. I believe that's what it -- that's what the asset purchase agreement limits.

- Q. Generally, to your understanding, was the purpose of the asset purchase agreement to sell his Giovanni's shrimp trucks so that he could continue to sell sauces?
- A. My understanding is that he wanted money from the sale of proceeds of these two trucks and had plans for a bigger business, including the production of sauces, bottling them, restaurants, and I guess opening chains, same, you know, duplicating the business out in the mainland.
- Q. At the time of the sale of the Giovanni shrimp trucks by the Aragonas to Nitsche Enterprises, did the shrimp trucks themselves have the name Giovanni's on them?
  - A. Yes.

1.3

- Q. Mr. Sonson, do you understand the difference between a trade name and a trademark?
- A. I don't recall. At one time I did. I just don't recall right now.
- Q. At the time of the asset purchase agreement, did you understand the difference between a trade name and a trademark?
- 25 A. I believe so, yes.

Mr. Sonson, did you ever have any dealings with 1 2 Connie Aragona? 3 MS. PITTS: Objection, asked and answered. Connie Aragona contacted me because she wanted 4 5 me to represent her on a criminal case. She wanted me to represent her regarding her criminal case. 6 7 0. (By Ms. Fraser) What criminal case did Ms. 8 Aragona ask you to represent her with? 9 She was charged, I believe she was -- I don't 10 know the full story, but she was charged for a criminal 11 matter because she tried to forcefully obtain the 12 business back from Troy Nitsche. 1.3 When you say forcefully obtain the business back 14 from Troy Nitsche, do you mean the Giovanni shrimp truck 15 business back from Troy? 16 I believe so. Α. 17 At the time you were drafting the asset purchase 18 agreement, what trademarks were the Aragonas using? 19 Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck. 20 name just Giovanni also, it was -- he was very 21 protective it was just Giovanni. 22 Were the Aragonas using Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp

I don't recall.

24

25

Α.

Were the Giovanni's -- excuse me.

at the time of the asset purchase agreement?

Were the Aragonas using Giovanni's White Shrimp

Truck at the time of the asset purchase agreement?

- A. They were the -- I recall that he had Giovanni's -- just the word Giovanni's is what they were using, and it was Original White Shrimp Truck. I'm not sure whether or not that was a trademark, trade name, whatever. All I know is that Giovanni's has a claim on the Original White Shrimp Truck because -- because there are other copycats out on the North Shore also saying that they are the original or that they are the shrimp truck.
- Q. What is your basis for your understanding that the Aragonas were using Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck?
  - A. There was a sign.
- Q. Is the sign the only basis for your understanding that the Aragonas were using Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck?
  - A. Yes.

1.3

- Q. If I could direct your attention to Exhibit 4, Mr. Sonson?
  - A. Yes.
- Q. If you would look at the first photograph in Exhibit 4 for Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck?
- 25 | A. Yes.

Q. Do you have personal knowledge of the Aragonas constructing this sign in Exhibit 4?

1.3

- A. No. I don't recognize or I did not testify that this is the sign that I originally saw, but I can testify to the words, that Giovanni's put a sign that said Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck.
- Q. When did the copycat shrimp trucks appear on the North Shore?
- A. Prior to me knowing Mr. Giovanni and afterwards. There's a lot more now than before.
- Q. Are you sure it was Mr. Aragona who added the word original to Giovanni's White Shrimp Truck?
- A. I didn't question at that time who did it, I don't know who, but I recall the words that existed at that time when I first went to visit Mr. Aragona at his work site in Kahuku.
- Q. Why didn't you include the trademark Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck in the asset purchase agreement?
- A. I don't know. It was a sign. I thought it referred to the truck.
- Q. Is it possible that Mr. Nitsche has created the sign we are looking at at Exhibit 4, the first photo, for Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck?
  - A. The construction, I know that I don't recognize it as the -- something that I can recall that existed there prior to the sale. The words I recall because there was already people trying to take business away from Mr. Aragona at that time. He was very popular because he was covered in the articles in the tourist books.

- Q. If there were copycats before Mr. Aragona asked you to draft the asset purchase agreement, why didn't you include Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck in the asset purchase agreement?
- A. If it -- it had no -- at that time, I can -- right from sitting here right now, I don't recall why I did not. I can assume that I did not know the significance of putting that in. I didn't know that it was something that needed protecting, and so I guess if it is important, then I failed my client.
- Q. When did Mr. Aragona show you the tourist guide books that you said had the name Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck in it?
- A. When he was discussing his business, how popular he was.
- Q. What time frame was this that Mr. Aragona said that he was popular?
- A. That would be before him indicating to me that he wanted to sell it.

- Q. What tourist guide books were they that you looked at with Mr. Aragona?
  - A. The one that he showed me, I don't know the name of the magazine, but there was a picture of it and an article regarding the White Shrimp Truck.
  - Q. Are you sure it said Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck in the guide book?
  - A. It had a picture of the truck with Giovanni's name and graffiti on it, so I recall that.
  - Q. Are you certain whether the name Giovanni's Original White Shrimp Truck appeared in the tourist quide book that you looked at with Mr. Aragona?
  - A. I am not sure whether Original White Shrimp

    Truck was included, the Giovanni's Original White Shrimp

    Truck was included in the article, no, I'm not sure.
  - Q. When was the last time that you visited the shrimp trucks now operated by Troy Nitsche?
    - A. I would say within the last three months.
  - Q. How frequently do you visit the shrimp trucks operated by Troy Nitsche?
    - A. Prior to that, almost monthly.
- Q. Have you noticed changes in the physical food truck since the Aragonas sold the business --

  - A. It looks a lot more permanent, the way they have it set up now.
  - Q. Have the menu items changed since the Aragonas sold the Giovanni's shrimp trucks to Mr. Nitsche?
  - A. Yes, I can only recall that the original Giovanni's, when Mr. Aragona had it, I can only recall two recipes, one scampi and one very, very hot, spicy, and I am very familiar with it because he gave me a long story about why it is spicy and why it is good. I recall the word pidipidi.
  - Q. Other than the shrimp truck services the Aragonas were providing under the Giovanni's names at the time of the asset purchase agreement, were there any other products being provided by the Aragonas at the time?
  - A. No. I only recall two products, Scampi and Hot and Spicy We Mean It. It's really spicy. I took a friend from Latin America there, and he cried.
  - Q. And perhaps we can get a spelling of that after. But other than the scampi and We Meana --

4.3

Q. -- what is the seven years running from?

- A. From its closing, and the reason I said approximately is because it could be longer.

- Q. Did you consider the asset purchase agreement in Exhibit 2 to be concluded?
- A. The drafting and signing was concluded, however, it did not -- the matter did not end.
- Q. When you say the matter did not end, what do you mean?
- A. It had contingencies and payments needed to be -- payments were needed to be exchanged, and also I was really expecting one other thing. I recall that my office was supposed to retain the recipes, so it was still out in the open. After we -- after the asset purchase agreement was done, it had -- it was still open. Those things were not done.
- Q. Did the Aragonas receive the payment set forth in the asset purchase agreement, Exhibit 2?
- A. My belief is that they got paid since John came to me, and he said it's done, he gave me my money and thanked me.
  - Q. Why did both John and Connie Aragona sign the asset purchase agreement?

- A. They were identified as the sellers. They were operating the business together, and that's why they needed to sign.
- Q. If I could direct your attention to two C of the asset purchase agreement at Exhibit 2?
  - A. Yes.

1.3

- Q. Did the asset purchase agreement provide for joint ownership of the Hawaiian trade name for Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp so that the Aragonas could sell sauces?
- A. I don't recall the specific reason for that. I don't recall that that was my idea or John's idea. My suggestion, as I recall, was that John was always -- that he retains ownership and to limit what he sells to Mr. Nitsche.
- Q. After the asset purchase agreement was drafted and signed, did John Aragona continue to offer food truck services?
- A. After it was signed, I don't recall whether or not that would be the case. I do understand that he had to train Troy, and he was actually training Troy Nitsche prior to -- I mean, even while he were drafting this, I understand that he was already there in the truck training and learning the business, so to speak.

- Q. Other than the training you referenced from the asset purchase agreement, has John Aragona offered any food truck services since that time?
- A. My understanding is that when John turned over the food trucks to Mr. Nitsche and the training is concluded, he will not conduct that same type of truck business here in the State of Hawaii.
- Q. And just to clarify, to your understanding, do you know if John Aragona has provided any food truck services since the asset purchase agreement in any State?

MS. PITTS: Okay, the last thing I heard was a question about John, and he wasn't doing any food truck businesses since the APA.

THE REPORTER: And the answer to that question was no.

- MS. FRASER: Okay, and then I had another question for the photographs. I can ask that question again.
- 25 | Q. (By Ms. Fraser) Mr. Sonson, do you know who took the photographs in Exhibit 4? 2 Α. No. 3 Do you know the exact dates for any of the photographs depicted in Exhibit 4? 4 5 Α. No. Do you think John Aragona is the current owner 6 of the Giovanni's Shrimp Trucks here in Hawaii? 7 8 I know that he is not the owner of the shrimp 9 trucks in Hawaii. 10 0. Why is that? There was the sale of those trucks that I am 11 Α. 12 familiar with, and since my many, many visits to the 1.3 truck, I could tell that someone else is operating it, 14 not John. 15 MS. FRASER: Keep going. 11 (The record was read back by the court reporter 12 as follows: 1.3 Question: Why is that? Answer: There was the sale of those trucks that 14 15 I am familiar with, and since my many, many visits to the truck, I could tell that someone 16 17 else is operating it, not John.) 18 Q. (By Ms. Pitts) Mr. Sonson, when has Mr. Aragona 19 visited Hawaii, to your knowledge, since he moved? 20 I can only -- I can recall with certainty at Α. least once that I saw him, but I also recall that there 21 22 were phone calls, but I am not sure if he was in Hawaii 23 at that time. Mr. Sonson, if I could direct your attention to 24 25 paragraph ten of Exhibit 2, the asset purchase

- A. Yes.
- Q. Is it true that paragraph ten references the trade name in ten A?
  - A. It does. It does.
  - Q. Does it reference a trademark in paragraph ten A?
    - A. No.
    - Q. Mr. Sonson, if I could direct your attention to paragraph twenty-one, section C?
      - A. Yes.
    - Q. Is it true that pursuant to paragraph twenty-one C, the buyer has full rights to use the name Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp without any limitations placed upon the buyer?
      - A. That's what it says in twenty-one C.
    - Q. Mr. Sonson, did Mr. Aragona ever express any disappointment with the way that the asset purchase agreement at Exhibit 2 was drafted?
      - A. No.
      - Q. Mr. Sonson, have you ever been disbarred?
- A. Yes. No. Suspended. I don't think I was disbarred. I was suspended for three months.
  - Q. Are you currently in good standing as an attorney with the State?

1	A. After the three months was over, yes.
2	MS. FRASER: Counselor, I don't have
3	anything further at this time.
4	MS. PITTS: I just have a couple more.
5	FURTHER EXAMINATION
6	BY MS. PITTS:
7	Q. As to what you said about John's current or
8	after the asset purchase agreement, did John ever
9	express or speak to you about his intentions to run
10	shrimp trucks on the mainland?
11	MS. FRASER: Objection, form, leading.
12	A. If the question is whether he expressed
13	intentions to operate a shrimp truck business on the
14	mainland, the answer is yes.
15	MS. PITTS: Yes, I think that's it.
16	MS. FRASER: And then, Counselor, just one
17	more matter. We would move to strike any of the leading
18	questions and subsequent testimony as well as the
19	impermissible narrative, and that's something that we
20	can raise with the Board later, but I wanted it on the
21	record because I did raise those objections throughout.
22	MS. PITTS: All right, if you had provided
23	more information in terms of what exactly you were
24	objecting to, I could rephrase.
25	MS. FRASER: Counselor, we are not permitted to have speaking objections during 1 depositions. We are only permitted to simply state the 2 3 basis for the objection, and that was done throughout the deposition. 4 5 MS. PITTS: All right, is there anything else? 6 7 MS. FRASER: Not on my part. I know our 8 next witness is waiting. Because of the technical 9 issues, we got a late start. I would suggest maybe we 10 all stay on line, or I don't know how the court reporter 11 wants to handle that, in light of the issues, if we 12 should stay on the phone. 1.3 THE REPORTER: Do you want to be on the 14 record for this? 15 MS. FRASER: Yes. THE REPORTER: I can't write and talk at 16 17 the same time. 18 MS. FRASER: Okay, then I guess that 19 answers that question, but do you have a preference 20 because of the issues? 21 THE WITNESS: I think that we -- may I 22 suggest that we close and go off the record because I do 23 need to get my phone back. 24 MS. FRASER: Yes, that's a very good point, but, Counselor, I know that we did discuss some of our

1 concerns regarding these technical difficulties. 2 Hopefully, we have figured those out. I know we did 3 lose some time on them. And also I just wanted to comment on the 4 5 record too, because we didn't state appearances, that Jennifer Fraser on behalf of the Petitioner is present 6 7 with the witness, Mr. Sonson, in Hawaii. Mr. Mullarkey, 8 co-counsel for Petitioner, is attending by telephone in 9 DC, and I understand counsel for registrant, Ms. Pitts, 10 is in another location by telephone. 11 MS. PITTS: Okay, off the record. 12 (Discussion off the record.) 13 THE WITNESS: I'm waiving signature. 14 (Deposition concluded at 11:46 a.m.) 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

Additional information regarding attempted service, etc:

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

- (1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees on a party or attorney who fails to comply.
  - (2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.
- (A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.
- (B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:
- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

- (A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:
  - (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
  - (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.
- (B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:
- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;
- (ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or
- (iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.
- (C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:
- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

- (1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information.These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:
- (A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.
- (B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.
- (C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.
- (D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

- (A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:
  - (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.
- (B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.
- (e) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

6. Payment of Closing Fees and Costs.

All closing costs shall be equally divided by the parties except that the Seller shall be solely responsible for bearing any costs relating to fulfilling the contingencies described herein and any other consents. All real property taxes and rent shall be prorated as of the Date of Closing. Each party shall bear their own attorneys fees and costs.

7. Buyer's Closing Obligations.

On or before the Closing Date, the Buyer shall:

A. Have paid into escrow all of the purchase price described in Paragraph 2 herein.

- B. Deposit into Escrow sufficient cash to cover (i) closing costs, and (ii) all other sums of money required to be paid by the Buyer pursuant to this Agreement.
- C. Execute and acknowledge all documents necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Asset Purchase Agreement (including all escrow instructions and closing statements).
- D. Perform and satisfy, or cause to be performed and satisfied, all other obligations and conditions which are required to be performed or satisfied by the Buyer under this Asset Purchase Agreement.

8. Seller's Closing Obligations.

On or before the Closing Date, the Seller shall:

- A. Deliver to the Buyer all of the assets listed in Exhibit "A" attached hereto.
- B. Execute and acknowledge a bill of sale transferring all of the assets listed in Exhibit "A" form the Seller to the Buyer.
- C. Perform and satisfy, or cause to be performed and satisfied, all other obligations and conditions which are required to be performed or satisfied by the Seller under this Asset Purchase Agreement.
- D. Execute and acknowledge all documents necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Purchase Agreement, including but not limited to documents that would transfer the registration of the trade name "Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp" into a joint ownership between the Buyer and Seller.

E. Possession. Seller shall deliver the keys and any codes for security devices to the Buyer at Closing. Any warranties in the possession of the Seller for the equipment or appliances shall also be delivered to Buyer at Closing.

9. Buyer Does Not Assume Debts of Seller.

It is expressly understood and agreed between the parties that the Seller is responsible for paying any and all debts incurred by the Seller prior and after the Date of Closing. The Buyer does not and will not assume any and all debts incurred by the Seller. The Seller hereby indemnifies and holds harmless the Buyer from any claim, liability or cause of action for any debt, claim, or action brought against the Seller that arose from any actions or transactions. It is further agreed between the parties that Seller shall retain the right to collect any accounts receivable for debts owed to Seller that were incurred prior to the Date of Closing.

10. Further Agreements Between the Parties That Will Survive Closing.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereby covenant and agree that the following are also terms and conditions of this Agreement that will survive Closing. The parties covenant and agree that these terms and conditions may be fully enforced by either party after Closing and that any breach of the following conditions shall be considered to be a breach of this Agreement:

A. The only restriction on the Buyer's use of the trade name "Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp" shall be that the Buyer shall sell at least a half pound of shrimp in the plate lunches sold by the Buyer after acquiring the Seller's business and the Buyer shall use as marination and sauces for the shrimp sold by the Buyer after acquiring the Seller's business both the scampi sauce, and the hot and spicy sauce that the Seller presently uses. If in the event however, the aforesaid scampi and hot and spicy sauce is not available to the Buyer after the buyer acquires the Seller" business, then the Buyer shall have the right to use a replacement sauce, subject however, to the terms set forth in Paragraph 10-C herein. The joint ownership of the trade name "Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp" shall apply only to the State of Hawaii, and the Buyer covenants and agrees not to register said trade name outside the State of Hawaii.

B. The Buyer shall have the right to purchase form the Seller the Giovanni's Scampi, and Giovanni's Hot and Spicy sauce that is presently used in the cooking and preparation of that product presently called "Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp". The Buyer shall have the right to purchase said sauces in sizes of gallon jugs or larger and the Buyer shall have the exclusive right to purchase said sauces in sizes of gallon jugs or larger at wholesale cost. The Buyer shall have the right to purchase said sauces at the Seller's cost form the bottler plus shipping cost, said cost however, being exclusive of labor. The seller may sell said sauces in the retail market but the Seller covenants and agrees that he shall not (i) sell said sauces in any containers larger than 12 ounces, (ii) sell said sauces to any person or entity other than the Buyer at wholesale (however, this shall not prohibit the Seller from selling his sauces, with the limitation on the sizes as noted above, to any food wholesaler for intended resale on the consumer market only), (iii) sell said sauces to any person or entity that will use said sauces to prepare and sell a food product for retail sale, and (iv) sell the sauce to any person or entity that will compete against the Buyer. The Seller's obligations under this paragraph shall be limited to the State of Hawaii, and shall not apply to sales outside the State of Hawaii.

- C. The parties acknowledge that Seller has contracted Hagerty Foods of California to bottle Seller's sauces and that the Buyer will be buying Seller's sauces through Hagerty Foods. Until the sauce becomes available through Hagerty foods and the Buyer receives delivery of its first complete order, Seller will be responsible for supplying the Buyer with an adequate quantity of sauce at the cost of ingredients. Seller and Buyer mutually covenant and agree that if Hagerty Foods, for whatever reason, cannot supply the Buyer with the shrimp sauces described herein in the required quantities or cannot supply the sauces to the Buyer at the cost of the product plus shipping (the failure of Hagerty Foods to provide said sauces shall be said to becur if the Seller cannot provide the Buyer with any order within twenty (20) calendar days of the Buyer making the order) then the following shall apply:
  - i. Seller shall first have the right to provide Buyer with the sauce that has become unavailable to Buyer. Seller shall however, provide the sauce to the Buyer at a price no higher than that which the Buyer was paying Hagerty Foods.
  - ii. In the event that the Seller does not provide the Buyer with the sauce within ten (10) calendar days of the date that Hagerty Foods fails to provide the order to the Buyer, then the Seller shall provide the Buyer with the recipes for said shrimp sauces. Said recipes, shall be subject, however, to a confidentiality agreement between the parties.

iii. In the event that the Buyer receives neither the sauce or the recipes in a timely fashion, then the Buyer may, at the Buyer's option, use a replacement sauce for the period that the Seller's sauces are unavailable to the Buyer. By using a replacement sauce the Buyer does not waive any rights or remedies that it may have under this Agreement as the use of said sauce is simply a means to allow the Buyer to mitigate any damages. The Buyer shall, in such circumstances, retain the right to take legal action against the Seller to enforce any provision of this Agreement.

D. Seller agrees to provide the Buyer with training for a period of two weeks after Closing. Said training shall be provided at no cost to the Buyer and shall inform the Buyer on all aspects of operating the business.

11. Compliance with Antitrust Act.

The parties hereby represent by executing this Agreement that they are not subject to the reporting requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antirust Improvement Act of 1976. If the parties are so required to report then the parties shall cooperate with each other to meet the requirements of this Act.

12. Compliance with Bulk Sales Act.

The parties hereby covenant and agree that the Seller is subject to the reporting requirements of the Bulk Sales Act under the Hawaii Revised Statutes. The Seller shall be solely responsible for meeting any reporting requirements under said Bulk Sales Act.

13. Cooperation of Parties in Transition: Inspection of Books.

Seller and Buyer shall each use reasonable efforts and cooperate in good faith to achieve an orderly transition relating to the leased premises described herein.

14. Cancellation of Agreement.

In the event that the Seller fails to fulfill any of the contingencies listed in this Agreement by the dates set forth, unless there is written agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall be null and void if any of those conditions are not met. Upon cancellation of this Agreement the Buyer shall receive a full refund of any deposits.

15. Non-Competition Clause.

In consideration of the covenants contained herein, the Seller agrees not to operate, own, participate in, manage, supervise, or engage in consulting any retail food business in the State of Hawaii for a period of five (5) years after the Date of Closing, except that the Seller may participate in a catering business, catering other types of food in addition to the product known as "Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp" if and only if the Seller purchases all the required shrimp, already cooked and prepared, from the Buyer at a price of the Buyer's cost plus a sixty percent (60%) mark-up. The Seller further covenants and agrees that they shall not use the name "Giovanni's" or "Giovanni" in the operation of any business in the State of Hawaii for a period of five (5) years after the Date of Closing, except that (A) the Seller may market and sell any sauces under the name Giovanni's provided that the market and sale of said sauces does not violate any other term of this Agreement, and (B) the Seller may open a sit-down restaurant that sells the shrimp under the aforesaid name if and only if said restaurant serves the shrimp only for dinner (after 6:00 p.m. daily). The Seller further covenants and agrees that under no circumstances will they operate, own, participate in, manage, supervise, or engage in consulting any lunchwagon operation in the State of Hawaii without the express written consent of the Buyer. The terms of this Paragraph shall survive Closing and the parties covenant and agree that without the existence of this clause that the Buyer would not have entered into this Agreement.

16. Event of Default.

The following shall constitute and "Event of Default" this Agreement:

  Purchase Agreement, or fail to observe or perform any other term or provision to #### 17. Remedies Upon Default.

Upon the occurrence of any "Event of Default", the non-defaulting party shall have the following rights and remedies:

A. In the case of the Seller being the non-defaulting party, the Seller's remedies shall be limited to canceling this Purchase Agreement and, if applicable, retention of the deposit described in Paragraph 2A herein.

- B. In the case of the Buyer being the non-defaulting party, the Buyer may either:
  - (i). Sue the Seller for and obtain damages and/or specific performances; or
  - (ii) The Buyer may choose to cancel this Agreement in accordance with the terms contained in paragraph 11 herein, in which case the deposit shall then be fully refunded to the Buyer, and upon cancellation there shall be no further obligations between the parties.

18. Time is of the Essence.

Time is hereby expressly declared to be of the essence of this Purchase Agreement. Unless otherwise specified herein, the due date for the receipt of any notices or sum of money shall be 5:00 p.m., H.S.T., of each respective day.

19. Applicable Law.

This Purchase Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Hawaii. Any legal action hereunder shall be filed in the State of Hawaii judicial system only and the Buyer and Seller hereby submit themselves to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Hawaii and the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii.

20. Attachments to this Agreement,

The attachment marked as Exhibit "A" shall be made a part to this Agreement.

B. If any part of this Agreement is deemed to be invalid for any reason, this shall not invalidate this entire agreement but shall only invalidate that one provision and the remainder of this agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

C. This Agreement shall be construed to give the Buyer full rights to use the name "Giovanni's Aloha Shrimp" without any limitations placed upon the Buyer on the use of said name.

D. This Agreement has been reviewed by each party and their respective counsel. Although this Agreement may have been drafted by one party, the Agreement shall be construed as if it had been drafted jointly by the parties and shall not be interpreted on behalf of one party as against the other.

E. The parties hereto agree that this instrument may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and said counterparts shall together constitute one and the same agreement, binding all of the parties hereto, notwithstanding all of the parties are not signatory to the original or the same counterparts. For all purpose, including, without limitation, recordation, filling and delivery of this instrument, duplicate unexecuted and unacknowledged pages of the counterparts may be discarded and the remaining pages assembled as one document.
